

Setup Guide

Power Up 3rd i

Locate the remote PIR sensor in the location to be monitored. Plug in a Micro-USB power supply cable.

the Secure WiFi connection point will now start-up.

Connect to 3rd i WiFi

After the connection point has been plugged in, open your device's Network & Internet Wi-Fi settings menu.. Look for a new connection called 3rd Eye.

Enter the password for the WPA2-PSK secured server. The default password unless selected otherwise at time of ordering is RelayAlert

Acknowledge that Internet is not available through the WiFi connection of the 3rd eye network..

Here select ,
Stay Connected

Open your Browser and search for 10.0.0.1

Then press Enter to start monitoring motion>

Interface manual

Operation

Total Alarm Counts

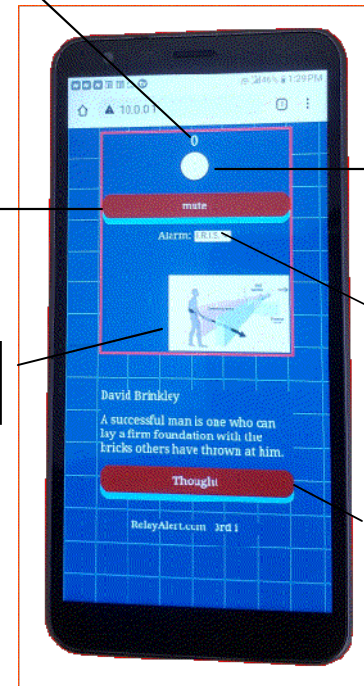

Mute Button

Motion Alert Graphic

Motion Indicator Lamp

Selectable Alarm Sounds

Inspirational Quotes to brighten your day

No Apps or Downloads required

A remote sensor to monitor for motion in secure areas. The RelayAlert third iteration of PIR sensor is perfect for anyone with an Android device that would like to monitor for motion over a secure WiFi connection. This is an example of a single user remote access panel application . For multiple access monitoring capabilities with unlimited clients, check out the RelayAlert I. R. I. S. online at www.RelayAlert.com